12/1/81

Dear George,

I read your review when it came. Although you said it is not necessary to respond, I want to because I think you did a good job and because I think you took the proper approach, to begin with reference to the institutional failures.

If what I've heard, attributed to Lifton, is correct, prepare for another review, of his sequel, to be published 11/22/82. Supposedly he is working on it now.

Hope things are going well with and for you.

Best regards,
